KshitiJ is the annual Techno management symposium of IIT Kharagpur. It began its journey in the year 2004 and has since then grown exponentially in terms of popularity and participation such that it has now become Asia's largest techno-management symposium. After the grand success of the 18th Edition of KshitiJ (online), it is now looking forward to its more elegant 19th edition (online).

Heartfelt greetings from team KshitiJ!!

Respected Ashish Joshi,
